bild personal membership

for the unwaged and those caring for a family member

Membership of British Institute of Learning Disabilities provides you with access to information and resources to help keep you better informed about learning disabilities.

The forum and who's who can also help expand your network of contacts, allowing you to share your experiences and concerns.

As a Personal Member of BILD your benefits include:

- A monthly copy of our unique Current Awareness Service, designed to keep you up to date with everything new in learning disabilities (alternatively you may opt for an alternative – see the application form overleaf)
- Invitations to free training events held at locations around the UK
- Opportunity to enjoy a low-cost discounted subscription to CASonline, a searchable online database containing references to over 40,000 journal articles, books and pieces of research, grouped into 150 topic categories
- Access to an exclusive membership forum on BILD's website to share your experiences with others, and exchange information
- An optional entry in BILD's Membership Who's Who enabling you to contact others who share your interests
- Regular email newsletters from BILD
- Opportunity to influence BILD by using your vote at our Annual General Meeting

One year's Personal Membership of BILD costs £21.

Join online at www.bild.org.uk/membership, call 01562 723015 or use the application form on left.

Personal membership is limited to one per household.
