

International Journal of Positive Behavioural Support

Peer review process

All correspondence relating to submissions should go through the publications coordinator who will be able to provide an audit trail and monitor progress. Suggest we also adopt the standards set out in the transparency peer review process.

